

January Family Project

This month's family project will be to construct a snow creature out of anything you have lying around the house. This creature can be anything that represents winter. It can be no bigger than a piece of ordinary paper!. 3-D sculptures are welcome. Please be creative and as always have fun!

